Academic Appointments

Postdoctoral Research Associate Sept 2026 – Present

Washington University at St Louis

PI: Dr. Henry Roediger and Dr. Andrew Butler

Research Assistant Jan 2026 – May 2026

Montana State University

PI: Dr. Michelle Meade

Teaching Assistant Sept 2021 – Dec 2025

Montana State University

Research Assistant (Full-time 40 hours/week) Feb 2019 – May 2019

PI: Dr. Ut Na Sio, The Education University of Hong Kong

Research Assistant (Part-time) Oct 2018 – Jan 2019

PI: Dr. Ut Na Sio, The Education University of Hong Kong

Education

Ph.D., Psychological Science, Montana State University, 2026

Dissertation: Examining the effects of collaborative recall on judgments of learning and self-paced study

Advisor: Michelle L. Meade, Ph.D.

M.Sc., Cognitive Neuroscience and Brain Imaging, University of Birmingham

Dissertation: Semantic before perceptual: A hierarchical processing pattern during memory retrieval

Advisor: Maria Wimber, Ph.D.

MSoSci, Psychology, The Education University of Hong Kong

Dissertation: Roles of task-switching and inhibition ability in problem solving

Advisor: Ut Na Sio, Ph.D.

B.Sc., Chemical Technology, Hong Kong Polytechnic University

Research Interests

My research interests concern how social factors influence individuals' memory and metacognition. Also, I am interested in how individuals perceive collaboration with others and how to improve the effectiveness of collaboration in memory and learning.
